CEO Focus of Southern New England has installed Milford resident Jeff Roblyer as its president. CEO Focus puts together and operates peer consulting groups for business owners, presidents and chief executive officers and provides business advisory services. Roblyer has more than 30 years of experience as an executive in public and privately held businesses. A veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps, he has a master's degree from the University of Phoenix and a bachelor's degree from Albertus Magnus College.

Catalyst Marketing Communications Inc., a Stamford-based advertising agency and public relations firm, has promoted Shelton resident Krysten D'Amato to public relations account executive. D'Amato joined the firm in October as an assistant account executive, coming from 5W Public Relations in Manhattan, where she was an account executive in the consumer division. In her new role, she provides service directly to accounts while supporting other clients through activities including writing press materials, managing media relationships, placing media stories and evaluating results of public relations activities. D'Amato has a bachelor's degree from Hofstra University.

Sharon Connelly, vice president of Exchange Enterprises Ltd., a commercial trade exchange based in Stratford, recently was named to the board of directors of the National Association of Trade Exchanges. Connelly is a 13-year veteran of the commercial barter or trade business, beginning with Exchange Enterprises in 1997 when it was in Norwalk. She is responsible for overseeing all daily operations of that company as it assists its membership, composed of small- and medium-sized area businesses, in trading with each other. Exchange Enterprises was established in 1983 in Darien.

practitioner, has become an Ameriprise Platinum Financial Services adviser. With an office in Stamford, she is one of about 15 percent of the 10,000 Ameriprise financial advisers to achieve this status. This status was achieved through exceptional performance, completion of specialized training and attainment of advanced industry recognized qualifications.

Fairfield resident Greg Coughlan, managing partner, of Christie/Coughlan Investment Management LLC in Stamford, has received the "40 under 40" honor awarded annually by the Fairfield County Business Journal. The "40 under 40" competition recognizes 40 successful business leaders younger than 40 who are helping grow Fairfield County's economy through their business accomplishments and leadership qualities. Coughlan left his position as a vice president at Merrill Lynch in November 2007 to start his advisory firm. He has more than 16 years of industry experience.
